

Get the facts about critical illness insurance.

Generally, few people are prepared for the financial consequences of surviving a critical illness. Expenses that may not be covered by medical plans, such as co-pays, deductibles, childcare costs, mortgage payments, groceries and experimental treatments, could cut into your savings.

How it works

Your critical illness benefit may be used multiple times. This illustration is based on a $30,000 Initial Benefit Amount plan.<sup>1</sup>

Heart attack<sup>2</sup>
1st verified diagnosis

Initial Benefit payment of $30,000

Heart attack<sup>2</sup>
2nd verified diagnosis (2 years later)

Recurrence Benefit<sup>4</sup> payment of $30,000

Stroke<sup>3</sup>
1st verified diagnosis (3 years later)

Initial Benefit payment of $30,000

MetLife Critical Illness Insurance: $30,000
Benefit Amount

In this example, the covered person would receive several lump-sum payments totaling

$90,000***

The MetLife Critical Illness Insurance Policy and Certificate are the governing documents with respect to all matters of insurance, including coverage for specific illnesses. The specific facts of each claim must be evaluated in conjunction with the provisions of the applicable Policy and Certificate to determine coverage in each individual case.

Recent studies have shown...

Medical bills have contributed to 62% of bankruptcies.<sup>5</sup>

Did you know?

MetLife Critical Illness Insurance covers 30+ covered critical illnesses, including cancer,<sup>6</sup> heart attack,<sup>2</sup> stroke<sup>3</sup> and kidney failure.

Consider this:

After my first experience, I never would have expected to suffer a second heart attack just two years later. But one morning while teaching my class, I felt an intense shortness of breath and pain in my jaw. Luckily, the school nurse called 911. First, I had to focus on getting better. The last thing I needed to worry about was finances. Critical illness insurance was there again to help pay for things medical insurance didn't cover, like specialist co-pays and help around the house, while I recovered.**
